PCL will perform the agreed to work in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession where applicable. PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the sample or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder, subject to payment of all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by (inclusive of client's request and the reports required by PCL to be) held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or required to be by PCL by law or regulation) and is not to be disclosed in breach of the agreement (subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process). PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to amount paid in settlement and attorneys' fees and expenses arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating, related to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to the agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, bodily injury, disease or death of persons, loss of, damage to, loss of use of or destruction of property and/or any kind of character. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, claims, damages, or judgments caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. To the fullest extent permitted by law, client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless PCL, its officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, liabilities and costs (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of defense) arising out of or in any way connected with the performance of services under this agreement, except for claims, losses, damages, liabilities and costs that arise from the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL. The foregoing indemnities will be applicable to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the fullest extent permitted by law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by an adequate public insurance coverage to be furnished by client, with limits of insurance that are in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses of Other Kind (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs and any and all judgment whereof), or any other expenses to exist incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or including PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, waste or substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any additional administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price list in effect at the time of completion of the date the services were rendered (unless otherwise agreed upon confirmed in writing). The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET (insert either thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (that is) by applicable law, any amounts unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees and related costs such reasonable amount as the courts

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL who is duly authorized to enter into the agreement. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished to PCL. Client is acting, services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information, and reports are not requested or shall be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, for securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with (directly or indirectly) any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered or inadequately or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be emailed to the client if requested. For analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. For tests holding times of 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of the fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been stated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allotted for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any ancillary or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written Letter of Custody (LOC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the Client of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or utilization of consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by the terms and conditions herein. Any and all additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "persons" shall mean all work to be performed for the Client, including provision of all equipment, instruments to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods(SM) at the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgment of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or subsidiary to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the Samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample analyses provided to clients or at client's request, and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other data of PCL.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, will indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and costs of all manners including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, caused or transmitted on, to and/or by client's hazardous materials. E.g., injury, illness or death of person(s), personal damage to, loss of or loss of property, arising out of improper use of many kinds of waste. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, suits or claims caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and description arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract caused by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might have to PCL and the obligations set forth herein. To the extent any indemnity would violate law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, consequential or incidental damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or the services provided under this agreement even if client or the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples material for analysis which are, asbestos, radioactive substances, biological or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any waste or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous Material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule effective at the time of execution of the order the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Prepayment may be required when analytical requirement is required for all new clients or where a history of payment and/or credit account has not been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of invoices are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from dated invoices. If the client commences litigation or will be applicable law, any amounts unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is obligating no rights hereunder for the work, accounts and notes, report or services, or in any other representation thereof to any other person or entity. Client agrees and acknowledges that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third parties may rely on PCL's data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not to be used, or shall be used to secure credit in connection with or in any way purchase, sale, hypothecation, or distribution of the securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, investment, instrument or collateral, any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or consulting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any subsequent request, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because samples that are delivered on weekends or after business hours without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours unless PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All tests holding times of 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight forwarder delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Prolonging long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the period unless storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been stated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions as may, including the Quote reference, and any subsequent amendments or waivers, which are signed and in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who has retained PCL directly for PCL consulting or sampling services and/or laboratory testing services. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such may periodically be amended or replaced from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

Any written and oral acceptances for Services (as defined herein) are made under the following terms of commercial reasonableness (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not supersede and be superseded only by executed written agreements existing which address the subject matter hereof. No modifications of the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and executed by authorized representatives of the Client and PCL.

The Client may place an order by submitting a written PCL proposal, quotation, or work authorization form signed by an authorized representative of the Client, or by providing PCL with the Client's written or oral instructions to perform the services described in the proposal, quotation, or work authorization form (collectively, the "Services"). Client's order is subject to and expressly limited to these Terms and conditions contained herein. PCL's acceptance of Client's order is expressly limited to these Terms and conditions contained herein. Any additional or different terms proposed by Client are rejected unless expressly accepted in writing by PCL. Client's acceptance of any of the Services performed by PCL after receipt of these Terms shall constitute Client's acceptance of these Terms. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by PCL, Client shall pay PCL for Services in accordance with PCL's Price Schedule in effect at the time the Services are performed. Client shall pay all invoices within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice. Late payments are subject to interest charges of 1.5% per month on the unpaid balance. In the event any payment is not received by PCL within thirty (30) days of the invoice date, PCL may suspend performance of Services until payment is received. Client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by PCL in connection with the collection of overdue amounts. Client shall notify PCL of any billing disputes within fifteen (15) days of the invoice date, or such disputes shall be deemed waived. Client shall pay all undisputed amounts in accordance with the payment terms set forth herein.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the Services in accordance with the normal standards of professionals in the profession within the same locality. PCL will use laboratories and analysts which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), US Underground Oil, UK American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastes and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature of contaminants of the sample or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made in a manner consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The aforementioned PCL officers, agents, employees or subcontractors (the "Client Parties") will all perform within the services to be provided hereby, shall not exceed the Client's amount for the Services. Client's exclusive remedy with and for PCL's proposal receives PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any Client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for. Adding PCL of the same, and all information required for suitable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for Services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform its obligations pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Each party (the "Receiving Party") agrees to maintain in confidence and not disclose to any third party any information received from the other party (the "Disclosing Party") that is identified as confidential or proprietary or that ought to be considered confidential or proprietary under the circumstances of its disclosure, except as required by law or court order. PCL may disclose the terms of this agreement, Client's name, and the nature of the Services performed hereunder for the purpose of marketing its services. Client shall not disclose any of PCL's pricing, proposals, or methodologies to any third party without PCL's prior written consent.

10. Hold Harmless

Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL, its employees, officers, and agents from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with the Services performed hereunder, except to the extent such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses are caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents. Client shall not be liable for any claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents. Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with the Services performed hereunder, except to the extent such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses are caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents. Client shall not be liable for any claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents.

11. Hazardous Substances

For the avoidance of doubt, Client acknowledges that PCL will provide and PCL will manage hazardous materials for analysis such as asbestos, asbestos-related pollutants, bacteria or any other biological or chemical material, waste or substances which are deemed dangerous or hazardous to human health or the environment (collectively, "Hazardous Substances"). PCL reserves the right to refuse to perform testing or handle samples of any material or substance that PCL reasonably believes is a Hazardous Substance. Client shall notify PCL prior to the delivery of any samples that Client knows or has reason to believe contain Hazardous Substances. Client shall be responsible for all costs associated with the proper handling, storage, transportation, and disposal of Hazardous Substances provided by Client, including any costs incurred by PCL in connection with the Services performed hereunder. Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with the presence, handling, storage, transportation, or disposal of Hazardous Substances provided by Client, except to the extent such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses are caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents. Client shall not be liable for any claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents. Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with the presence, handling, storage, transportation, or disposal of Hazardous Substances provided by Client, except to the extent such claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses are caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents. Client shall not be liable for any claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees, officers, or agents.

12. Prices/Payments

Client may pay PCL in accordance with PCL's standard price schedule in effect at the time of performance of the Services, unless otherwise agreed to in writing. The parties agree to adjust for changes of any new, additional services requested in advance or when circumstances encountered in the field differ from those on which a proposal and/or price quotation has been established by PCL. No price quote, written or otherwise, shall be binding on PCL for a period of longer than thirty (30) days from date of issuance. Initial travel time to the project site (if at all) is not included in any price quote and is the responsibility of the client. PCL may, in its sole discretion, charge a travel time fee for travel to the project site. Client shall pay PCL all applicable taxes, duties, and governmental charges, including but not limited to sales, use, excise, value-added, and similar taxes, and any penalties or interest thereon, arising out of or relating to the Services provided by PCL, except for taxes based on PCL's net income. Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with Client's failure to pay such taxes, duties, or charges.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications, or amendments to the terms of this agreement must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties. No oral agreements or understandings shall be binding unless reduced to writing and signed by the authorized representatives.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for Client's use of the work product, data, information, or reports prepared by PCL. Client is solely responsible for its own independent evaluation of and decisions regarding the Services and work product. No third party beneficiaries to this agreement are intended. Any reports, opinions, or recommendations prepared by PCL are for the sole benefit of Client and may not be relied upon by any other person or entity without PCL's prior written consent. Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with any unauthorized use of or reliance on PCL's work product, data, information, or reports by Client or any third party. The warranty and liability limitations set forth herein are for the benefit of Client only, and no other person or entity shall have any rights or remedies under this agreement or otherwise against PCL with respect to the Services performed hereunder. Client shall not assign its rights or delegate its obligations under this agreement without the prior written consent of PCL, and any attempted assignment or delegation without such consent shall be void and of no effect. Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PCL from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or in connection with any unauthorized use of or reliance on PCL's work product, data, information, or reports by Client or any third party.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the client cannot be contacted within the agreed upon window, PCL will not be responsible for missing the agreed upon turnaround time.

16. Holding Times

PCL will perform reasonable sampling and analysis that are consistent with standard practices and industry standards. Unless otherwise instructed in writing by Client, all samples will be disposed of 14 days following completion of analysis. Client may request PCL to retain samples for a longer period of time, but PCL reserves the right to charge a storage fee for such service. Client shall provide PCL with sufficient quantity of sample for PCL to perform the requested analyses. PCL will not be responsible for any loss or damage to samples due to insufficient sample quantity. Client shall notify PCL in writing of any hazardous characteristics of samples prior to delivery to PCL. PCL will not be responsible for any loss or damage to samples due to hazardous characteristics that were not disclosed to PCL in writing prior to delivery.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for 30 days from the date of analysis. Samples are disposed of after this period unless otherwise requested by the client in writing. Client may request PCL to retain samples for a longer period of time, but PCL reserves the right to charge a storage fee for such service. The storage fee will be determined at the time of the request and will be based on the volume and type of samples being stored.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been estimated on the fee schedule. Rescheduling fees have been established for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be subject to additional fees.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Client" and "you/your" mean these Terms and conditions of use, including the price schedule, and any agreements or amendments knowingly recognized by writing. "Client" means the additional or entity who may receive any story services, including or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Private Enterprise" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Hazlehurst, Georgia, as both agreements may be amended or replaced from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services as described herein only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). The following shall apply: 1) to the extent that none exclusive agreement is acting which governs the transaction, the Terms, no modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written order of customer (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of this contract or create any exceptions to the Terms and conditions.

For purposes of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession where applicable. PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial compliance with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), EA Waterboard Group), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods for the Examination of Water and Wastewater, and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the professional judgment of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and the PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or subcontractors for any claims and all suits in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoice amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for allowing PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform its obligations pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Each party (the "receiving party") shall hold in confidence all information received from the other party (the "disclosing party") that is designated as confidential or proprietary or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential or proprietary given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure. The receiving party shall: (a) use the disclosing party's confidential information only for the purposes of performing its obligations under this agreement; (b) limit access to the disclosing party's confidential information to those of its employees, agents, and subcontractors who need to know such information for the purposes of performing its obligations under this agreement and who are bound by written confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those set forth in this section; and (c) not disclose the disclosing party's confidential information to any third party without the prior written consent of the disclosing party. The receiving party shall not be liable for disclosure or use of information that: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a breach of this agreement; (b) was lawfully known to the receiving party without restriction before disclosure by the disclosing party; (c) is lawfully obtained from a third party without restriction and without breach of any confidentiality obligation; or (d) is required to be disclosed by law, regulation, or court order, provided that the receiving party gives the disclosing party prompt written notice of such required disclosure and reasonably cooperates with the disclosing party's efforts to obtain a protective order or other appropriate remedy. Upon the termination or expiration of this agreement, or upon the disclosing party's written request, the receiving party shall promptly return or destroy all copies of the disclosing party's confidential information in its possession or control, and shall certify in writing to the disclosing party that it has done so. The obligations of confidentiality set forth in this section shall survive the termination or expiration of this agreement for a period of three (3) years.

10. Hold Harmless

Client agrees to, and shall hold harmless, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, and current members from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, lawsuits, actions, and expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs of suit, court and arbitration costs, and expert witness fees) of every kind and nature whatsoever, arising out of, or in any way relating to: (a) any breach by client of any of its obligations, representations, or warranties under this agreement; (b) any negligent or willful misconduct of client or its employees, agents, or subcontractors; (c) any claim, demand, or action by any third party alleging that client's use of the services, or the results or reports delivered to client by PCL pursuant to this agreement, and/or client's handling or possession of client's hazardous materials, infringes, violates or misappropriates any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, or other intellectual property right of any third party; (d) any claim, demand, or action by any third party for bodily injury, death, damage to, or loss of use of property, arising out of or relating to client's hazardous materials, or client's handling, possession, use, storage, transportation, or disposal of client's hazardous materials; or (e) any violation by client of any applicable law, rule, or regulation. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) of any kind whatsoever, even if such damages were foreseeable and whether or not client or PCL has been advised of the possibility of such damages, and regardless of the basis upon which the liability is claimed. In the event PCL is found liable to client for any direct damages, client agrees that the total liability of PCL, its affiliates, officers, agents, employees, and subcontractors, whether such liability arises in contract or tort (including, but not limited to, negligence and strict liability), or otherwise, shall not exceed the total compensation received by PCL hereunder or the maximum sum as may be permitted by applicable law, whichever is less. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) of any kind whatsoever, even if such damages were foreseeable and whether or not client or PCL has been advised of the possibility of such damages, and regardless of the basis upon which the liability is claimed. In the event PCL is found liable to client for any direct damages, client agrees that the total liability of PCL, its affiliates, officers, agents, employees, and subcontractors, whether such liability arises in contract or tort (including, but not limited to, negligence and strict liability), or otherwise, shall not exceed the total compensation received by PCL hereunder or the maximum sum as may be permitted by applicable law, whichever is less.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide PCL with non-hazardous samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other substances or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or classified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL agrees to return any remaining or left over sample or test material or dispose of in accordance with client's instructions. Client represents that any hazardous material provided by PCL from client at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify PCL's preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analytical testing, analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's then-the price schedule in effect at the time of commission of the work the services were rendered, which shall be quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or client analysis is considered required for all new clients or client's history of payment and records of work has been established with PCL. For many clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of invoices are net eight (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted at law by applicable law, any amount owed by the net of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are to be sent through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable court and attorney fees or agents' fees associated with said collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative. Any changes subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or servant, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not to be used, or shall be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities or any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or dealings with brokers, underwriters, and governmental agencies or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any subsequent reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or other short notice without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and preservation methods should be followed as set by samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 3-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before we can work to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less that require 6 hours must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these terms and conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments to which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who is to receive laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and who is to pay fees, assessments, charges and expenses. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined below) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by those terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of scheduling services constitutes the client's express assent to the provisions of these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's communications shall be deemed to become a part of the agreement created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the current standards of care/diligence in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (RWQB), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL's standard operating procedures (SOP's) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's execution of a work order and/or payment releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services (s) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for assisting PCL of the scope and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform its obligations pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material provided by or on behalf of client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services performed as per provisions of this agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client without disclosure to any third party any information concerning client's confidential information, software, proprietary or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all costs for the litigation (experts and witnesses) arising in favor of client or any third party, as a result of, related in any way to arising incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, receiving or disposal of client's hazardous materials, or injury, illness or death of persons (including, without limitation, all loss of use of property and all consequential loss of any kind of character). The indemnity described apply to any of the foregoing which exists, claims, demands, suits, causes of action or loss by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of conduct of any independent person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities are in addition to any duties which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent that client, under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be, to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law, in no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or the amount of judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement, even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for asphalt personal analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client requests PCL, in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of acceptance of the order, the services as requested or as may subsequently be confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is expected for client analysis is completed. It is agreed that all new clients or with credit or payment and/or credit accounts not been established with PCL. No client, client's agent or any associated party, including, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by all or in part, any amount unpaid at the end of that day shall be subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If any old amount is collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, or client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or costs. Non-established with credit collection process will be:

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. Client is agent and acknowledges that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not to be relied upon by client to effect such, in connection with or as part of any investment, sale, underwriting, solicitation of sale, securities, and participation other reporting, or the purchase of any lease or the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any, unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded as a result of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 72 hours or less, samples must arrive within 24 hours of sampling to allow PCL to meet holding times. All analyses with holding times of 48 hours or less must arrive within 24 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times. All analyses with holding times of 24 hours or less (bacteria) must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. Short notice, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is given or available to the public, or in the public domain, or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data when such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees none shall be any third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary or confidential technical information provided by PCL.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys fees (the aforementioned expenses shall accrue as long as there or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or claims caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, the indemnity shall not be wholly applicable to client, client does also release PCL of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any intermediate person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption (regulatory expenses or citation fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided to client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical info matters, software programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, all employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of kind arise. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims and causes of actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and (when) confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when invoice is presented is required for all new clients or clients a history of payment and/or credit has not been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET 30DAYS which is 30 days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by all applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of (a) the maximum rate permitted by law or (b) one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or assess" fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be placed orally or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not required by, or shall be used to rely upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or syndication of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (analysis 48 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any addendums or amendments to which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the Client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the service(s) in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession, where applicable. PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA WaterReuse (FLAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or Client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided previously for the particular use and benefit of them and client agrees that there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, equipment or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and reasonable expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the obligation to indemnify and defend falling in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to the agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. nuisance (of any kind or character). This indemnity provision applies to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or suits caused solely by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. For more information, visit: Specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence (or alleged negligence) of any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extend necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance in coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) resulting from Experts or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and fees on appeal [judgment interest]), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any work product or services in connection with this agreement to the maximum amounts permitted under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or designated as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL's policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance for each analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by all applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or actions.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client's representations, warranties, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to refuse, or as conditions with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities. Any personal or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender, or the participating with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analysis are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any subsequent reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after hours on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All other holding times 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24-5 days before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria) samples must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his/her/its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule or such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by those terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the sample or otherwise based on the reasonable judgment of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information whenever such report is PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees, (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, illness or death of persons, 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial or other injury of any kind or nature. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any unidentified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or upon analysis is required for all new clients or clients with a history of payment and/or credit account has not been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as will be established by law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection process or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services responsible for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to, in any way, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analytes are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services for delivery hereof only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract thereby upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control [illegible]

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request, and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) (subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process). PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees that shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Pollution of any kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing risks, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) (litigation Expenses in either case including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the give or take judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any legal action against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of such orders on the date the services were rendered or such prices otherwise agreed to in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or other security as may be required for all new clients or upon a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permissible at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay the reasonable costs and attorney's fees incurred, both with and without litigation, plus collection efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes/modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative. In excess that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent of broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to negotiate in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours. Before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Specialty 24 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additional or amended terms to which we have agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined below) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). Those below shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may place services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes Client's acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions stated. Client agrees to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For the purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (CAWP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the sample(s) are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material provided by client or at client's request and the reports prepared by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or to the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of this agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL recognizes the value and need for care in collecting and handling confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such handling was in accordance with PCL reports and proposals provided thereto and for the purpose and limit of liability set forth in this agreement. PCL disclaims any third party beneficiary status. Data or information obtained or developed by PCL during the course of work performed under this agreement shall be the property of PCL.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and parent companies from and against any and all claims, losses and damages, causes of action, suits and liabilities of every kind, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs, arising on behalf of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way relating, incident or arising out of or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, and/or transporting, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. This release or decision of persons 2, 3 or 4 of damage to, loss of, or use of, or destruction of property and/or 5. personal injury, illness or death of any kind of character. This indemnity shall apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely or in part by the negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, cover, compensate and defend any and all claims, demands and causes of action of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with any negligence or act or omission of client or any independent person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will not in addition to any liability which the client may otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessarily under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive (unless incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any of all expenses PCL could sustain by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

If it PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab or field analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of commencement of the date the services were rendered or with price quotes and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or upon delivery of reports is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit approval has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established account, or such, the terms for payment of charges are NET [ ] days from date of invoice. To the extent permitted by law, any amount which is not paid within thirty (30) days from date of invoice, any amount which is not paid within thirty (30) days from date of invoice, any amount which is not paid within thirty (30) days from date of invoice

Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other intellectual.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses (including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (plus Litigation Expenses) and diversity arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way or, arising incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or it's participation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or on breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and for pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or upon receipt of completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of the (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection (pre judgment efforts).

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, arrangement, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been outlined on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who has requested laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or deliverables) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may place orders for submitting a written request of services (SOR) to PCL. Any such order constitutes an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions of T. In agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or utilization of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), EA Watershed (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this Agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the samples materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such data or information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any statement required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized interception of test data where such material was provided. PCL reports and information provided is intended solely for the exclusive use and benefit of client and such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose any such reports, data or information to any third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information without prior written consent of PCL. Client will not disclose any PCL test data, information, training techniques, approaches, procedures or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and consequent expenses including, but not limited to, court fees, (the "Liabilities") incurred by such persons arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating to, or which is caused by, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. In equity, give rise or decision of paragraph 2, sum of damage by knife or item of use of property to the P. Executive Hall of every kind of character. This indemnity shall apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, liabilities or expenses caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of duty of any and all independent persons, whether acting or engaged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnification obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special or consequential damages of any kind, including, without limitation, loss of profits (including anticipated litigation expenses) or other loss (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or on services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by a client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (except to the extent existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at Client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all biological analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of hire/delivery or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time with or without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all accounts not paid when due shall be subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1½) per month, or the highest balances of unpaid amounts are forwarded to collection attorneys. In the event of any dispute over any amount billed to client, client shall pay the undisputed amount when due and provide written notice to PCL within ten (10) days of receipt of invoice of the basis for disputing the balance of the invoice. Payment of undisputed amounts shall not be withheld pending resolution of any disputed amounts. Client shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, incurred by PCL in connection with the collection of any unpaid amounts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms of this agreement shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services from PCL for third party account, shall act as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for another person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not represented on behalf of, used to reflect upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or evaluation of any securities, any person, or other security or the holders of any security, the servicing, amortization, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the participation in or connection with any of the foregoing transactions, or any other similar or dissimilar transaction.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are received on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to you upon request. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours or allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (< 7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Microbiology Rush) must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed as additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for the unintended disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, protocols or other information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (the obligation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified at such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's published price schedule in effect at the time of execution of this agreement or, if the services were rendered or work performed before confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when otherwise requested is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET 30 (or within thirty (30) days from date of invoice). To the fullest extent permitted by law and applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the rate of one (1%) per month (or the highest amount permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance). If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees to recover from any client's failure to pay promptly or other proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

No agreements or amendments to the Terms shall be effective or binding and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorizing the expenditure, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acquiring services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not prepared or shall be used to rely upon in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less (samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (< 7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (excluding 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under its following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.
The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and observations provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall not be third party beneficiary of our reports, data or information. Client will not distribute to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and every, for arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client or the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and PCL credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of the thirty days of issue (or interest) or the date of the invoice (whichever is earlier) shall bear interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees and agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall not be used to rely upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any portfolio or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (2-7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (typically 24 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays of similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage term.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is for public release or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it employs in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for any accidental disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other intellectual

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and any / all costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, court fees, third party litigation Expenses and awards, arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way in connection with / arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, suits, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims and causes of action of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and for pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price sheet in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when invoice is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or specific fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely upon data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, or marketing, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order Services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized use or disclosure where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL (a) agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software processes or other formulation.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all actions, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind or nature. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Substances"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and the client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client if securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to resell upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement on to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions enumerated in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (LEAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material provided hereunder or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) except to the extent disclosure is required by [illegible] process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential information but shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of sample data or results obtained hereunder. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software problems or other limitations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees, litigation expenses and reasonable attorney's fees arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property; and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing to the extent, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity is not specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party to any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or upon a history of payments and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by all and by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client or authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability to client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for her own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or compliance with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (pH tests is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (the Litigation Expenses) and expert witness fees) of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this Agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal representation or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his/her/its/their account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. As analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which have agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his, its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services as detailed herein only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). Some Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.
The client may order services by submitting a written Letter of Intends (LOC) to PCL. Any such order, subsequently is an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or requested consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the Client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (STAP), American society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or to the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data when such standard was observed. PCL reports are confidential and provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party transfer, sale or use of reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary or technical information without the prior written consent of PCL.

10. Hold Harmless

Client, company and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and costs, (and expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees and litigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of them or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous samples. I injury, disease or death of persons or loss of, damage to, or destruction of property and/or 3. Environmental of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further this indemnity shall be totally apply to actual claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or result of conduct by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged. In the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have to PCL and the indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary or under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverages as determined by client, which coverage shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other loss (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, Bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab, bacterial analysis, Client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when otherwise requested is required for all new clients or upon a breach of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of Charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, a) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days in arrears of interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay all reasonable costs and attorney's fees or expenses incurred with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except for subsequent orders for additional services may be made as set forth.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is solely responsible for its own acts and not as agent or employee of any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that the data, information and reports are not requested or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or by part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, removal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other source or the syndication of or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (3-7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (turnaround 6 hours) must be delivered (not same day or prior to) guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional surcharges and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the date of the date of the fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unwilful/accidental disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. All PCL reports and information provided shall be for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of PCL reports, data or information. Client will not post link to any third party information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or to any person arising incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and 3. Personal injury of every kind of that kind. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities client solely to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnifying person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or on services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes or substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof) (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect for the area of operations in the state the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or where credit is completed is required for all new clients or upon a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are full cash within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are referred to legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or assess fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only when executed by an officer of PCL and by client, either in writing, orally or by subsequent orders for additional services made verbally or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or on any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to hold value, in connection with or as part of any particular sale, understanding, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 24 daylight hrs, samples must arrive within 36 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (analysis to 48 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been related on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Terms of Sales and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it employs for its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other methodologies.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of any hazardous materials, 1. injury, grievance or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, lost of, or loss of use of property; and/or 3. financial injury of every kind or character. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any soil bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analyses completed is required for all new clients or with a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by duly authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is retaining services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additional or amendments hereto to which we agree from time to time. "Client" means the individual or entity who is to receive laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under this following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No conditions or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), 64 Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater, and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material submitted by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is in the public domain or client is not required to pay PCL for all services rendered to it hereunder in breach of the agreement), subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, written programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or as a prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities. Any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only on the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and executed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and/or an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), Co-Operative (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or to the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was followed. PCL reports and other work product provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall be the third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning the methodology, software or programs of other clients.

10. Hold Harmless

Client necessary will shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies and agents and any and all liabilities, losses or damages (including reasonable costs of actions, suits and reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees) the litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of clients or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way according incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, and/or in connection, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, injury, disease or death of persons, loss of damage to, loss of, or use of property and/or, if the client is or many acts of omission. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing liabilities, costs, damages or expenses caused solely by the acts, negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims and awards, actions of every kind and character, arising out of in connection with the negligence or act or fault of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of application on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and client's settlement in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when services is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit approval has been established with PCL. For invoiced clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or attorney fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by the client. Furthermore, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability to client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client, in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third parties may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, to shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any prefatic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are expired because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or to otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples/materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, waste and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at the client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices, quotes and fees confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding unless without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-3 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria's & Neural) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client is cited to pay PCL for an services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement), subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other confidences.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliate, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (including litigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, cover, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or post-judgment interest) or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (LEAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any clients purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at Client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data after a good standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes, or other items obtained.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, injuries, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, loss and expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys fees, litigation expenses) and assets arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or shall constitute handling or disposal of Client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. The underlying discussion applies to all the foregoing injuries, losses, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to client's claims, damages, attorney's fees and costs for arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or incurred / caused by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have on PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event will PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party. In any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

As PCL is to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when requested is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of invoices are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by all applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal and/or legal or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in connection with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by a duly authorized representative, except that additional orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability to client's or other reliance on data, information or reports furnished to PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analysis are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for missing times that are mandated because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. For analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times will be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (pH is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day to allow to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his/her/its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL)'standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results delivered by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data when exact standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (plus litigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operation on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or credit approval is required for all new clients or until a history of payments and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are to be collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services as defined herein only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. Any modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or industrial consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the Services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results assessed by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of this agreement), subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL employs the same standard of care as it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and it is agreed there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not duplicate any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and awards arising out of client or any third party as a result of, or due in any way to, claiming incident's arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement as to: a) transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, b. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind and character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, liabilities or claims caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to client, client agents, officers of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or on services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations, whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all tested portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or such other quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment of all sums or when invoice is computed is required for all new clients or clients without a history of payment until credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by or all by applicable law, any amount unpaid on the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate established by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in connection with such collection procedure or activity.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client. Authorized representative, verbal and subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of any verbal or written data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not relied on, or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any proposal, or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 48 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7 days, samples must arrive at the lab no later than 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (sub seven 0 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed on a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or Client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the Agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgement interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any Indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples / materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date PCL services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amounts unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.50%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees (or agents' fees calculated with such collection procedures or efforts.)

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.)

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior modification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL."

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has had to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorney fees (the Litigation Expenses) and costs accruing in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when invoice is completed is required but all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

No changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective or in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to record proof in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. For short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (typically 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (LLAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary (containing technical information, software programs or other formulations).

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all costs, fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, sickness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall not specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of PCL's compliance with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Life abor, expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined to identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations and/or date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to rated upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (accidents 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" mean these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unsolicited disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees it/we shall be no third party beneficiaries of PCL's reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning PCL's methodologies, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, diseases, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to cover, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and (or pre or post judgment interest)), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable prior schedule in effect at the time of application for the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is requested is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or allowable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees as agreed. Fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client (or authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing).

14. No Third-Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to rely upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less' samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or solicitation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or complications of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site, and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data after such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses in damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with, the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 2. injury, disease or death of persons 3. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 4. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or with a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to all reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to all reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to all

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at Client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is due public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (the Litigation Expenses) and interest arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, threat or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, suits, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the date of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees of PCL's associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by the duly authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent of broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (tested in 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of this agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any intellectual property including technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all actions, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (the litigation if asserted) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Property loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, the indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or at the prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 3-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or his/her/its successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. ce Majeure

ll not be responsible for delay or failure to perform ces pursuant to this agreement due to causes control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees that it shall not to third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose any third party any information concerning technical information, software, procedure or other formulation.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliate corporations and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, court fees, attorney fees, expenses and awards arising in favor of Client, or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, lost of, or use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind and character, including out of and in connection with the negligence or in whole or in part caused by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have on PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material's provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data, where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and it is agreed client shall be its third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information including technical information, software, processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of "Client or any third party" as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Parties. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET 30th (thirty) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by all applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are not collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or actions.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by one its authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and continue, and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees, the Litigation Equipment, and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way or to any incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused directly by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity is in addition to any and all rights to which PCL and the other indemnified Persons may be entitled at law or equity. This indemnity shall apply to all the foregoing losses, costs, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client may otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses: In other laws (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), to any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by or as allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analytes are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and information materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise a result of the agreements) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standards of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data when such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and actions arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or as services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, (ref. sample submittal), in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by or as by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to accrue at the sector of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees to PCL and associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or results furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and results were not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, (7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria & Iodine) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The client's delivery of samples to PCL or solicitation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was employed. PCL's reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Clients will not disclose any third party any [illegible] where such marketing technical information, software programs or other information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates and successors and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, related in any way to, arising, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and 3. Breach of this or of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to client's damages, actions of every kind and character, arising out of or in any way connected with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation / commercial collection costs including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interests, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified persons in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, pulp/laminate / polymeric bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws / rules. PCL follows EPA regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or upon a review of payment and credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing, and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of performance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Coliforms is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at Client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or Client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such information unless such disclosure was caused by PCL's gross negligence or willful misconduct. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical or formula, software development or other consultations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses to damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and attorney arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, suits, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to known claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage as to be identified by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, as in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and credit approval has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of invoices are NET 30 days which thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law or applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees to PCL from any action with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acquiring services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the qualification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL's reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and (or as agreed) those shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of Client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims (including all types of every kind and character) arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and (or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at Client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or upon a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are referred through collection agencies or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, as client as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender, or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less' samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

1. Definitions:-

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is for public, domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. All reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any protocol or concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, attorneys fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) litigation, licenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect for the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with price quotes and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or on a history of payment and/or credit approval has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to accrue at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent, broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to record upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorney fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregone losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analyses, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his/her/its account, and not as agent of, broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, and periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

This work was authorized under Pat-Chem Laboratories' Project # 18I033-01.

The report consists of a Cover Letter, Sample Inventory (Section I), Data Summary (Section II), Sample Tracking (Section VI), and Qualifiers/Abbreviations (Section VII). Raw Data (Section III), Continuing Calibration (Section IV), and Initial Calibration (Section V) are available in a full report (.pdf format) upon request.

If you have any questions regarding this report, please feel free to contact me at (916)932-5011.

Sincerely,

James M. Hedin

J	Concentration found below the lower quantitation limit but greater than zero.
B	Analyte present in the associated Method Blank.
E	Concentration found exceeds the Calibration range of the HRGC/HRMS.
D	This analyte concentration was calculated from a dilution.
X	The concentration found is the estimated maximum possible concentration due to chlorinated diphenyl ethers present in the sample.
H	Recovery limits exceeded. See cover letter.
	Results taken from dilution.
I	Interference. See cover letter.
Conc.	Concentration Found
DL	Calculated Detection Limit
ND	Non-Detect

CASE NARRATIVE

EPA 549.2:
Diquat strongly adsorbs to soil particles that are suspended in water. The strong chemical bonds make the herbicide chemically inactive. When bound with soil particles, the extraction procedure for method EPA 549.2 is ineffective at isolating the bound diquat. Any reported diquat represents the dissolved analyte in the water that has not been bound to the soil particles.

The laboratory control sample duplicate (LCSD) recovery was below the lower acceptance limit for diquat. The response of the reporting limit standard was such that the analyte would have been detected even with the low recovery; therefore, the data were accepted.

The relative percent difference (RPD) between the laboratory control samples was above the acceptance limit for diquat. This indicates that the sample results could be variable. Since there were no detectable levels of analyte in the sample, the data were accepted.

EPA 548:
Due to quality control sample failures in the first analysis, the sample was re-extracted after the extraction holding time had expired.

The endothall recovery for the matrix spike (MS) was below the lower acceptance limit. The recovery was within acceptance limits in the laboratory control sample/laboratory control sample duplicate (LCS/LCSD) indicating that the low recovery may be due to matrix effects.

The surrogate recoveries were below the lower acceptance limit in sample EFF 18IO313 and the sample matrix spike. This indicates the low recoveries may be due to sample matrix interference.

Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 7 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(2 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(2 pages)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(3 pages)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
EFF	09/14/2018	09/18/2018	SP 1812465-001	W

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived on ice. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

ND=Non-Detected. PQL=Practical Quantitation Limit. * PQL adjusted for dilution.

MDA = Minimum Detectable Activity (Calculated at the 95% confidence level) = Data utilized by DHS to determine matrix interference.
MCL / AL = Maximum Contamination Level / Action Level. Alpha's Action Level of 5 pCi/L is based on the Assigned Value (AV).
AV = Assigned Value(Gross Alpha Result + (0.84 x Error)). CCR Section 64442: Drinking Water Compliance Note: Do the following
If Gross Alpha's (AV) exceeds 5 pCi/L run Uranium. If Gross Alpha's (AV) minus Uranium exceeds 5 pCi/L run Radium 226.

Drinking Water Compliance:
Gross Alpha (AV) minus Uranium is less than or equal to 15 pCi/L
Uranium is less than or equal to 20 pCi/L
Radium 226 + Radium 228 is less than or equal to 5 pCi/L

Note: Samples are held for 3-6 months prior to disposal.

ICV	: Initial Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
ICB	: Initial Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyted. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.

Explanation

360	: ICV above Acceptance Range (AR). Samples which were non detect for this analyte were accepted.

Definition
LRS	: Laboratory Recovery Standard - Prepared to establish the batch recovery factor used in result calculations.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyted. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
BS	: Blank Spikes - A blank is spiked with a known amount of analyte. It is prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
BSD	: Blank Spike Duplicate of BS/BSD pair - A blank duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyte. It is prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
BSRPD	: BS/BSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The BS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.
Explanation
435	: Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such disclosure was beyond PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (the litigation if apportion) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way directly or indirectly incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. from, division or death of persons or 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, or the 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by PCL's gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character, including good faith settlements with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET EIGHT (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third-Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or trustee, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule, as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes (i) an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and (ii) an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purposes of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for assuring PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results answered by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information containing technical information, software processing or other proprietary.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL (and its officers, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies from and against any and all liabilities, demands, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all costs, fees (including attorneys' fees) and expenses arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or representations, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, injury, damage or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind, of the client. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. In no case, will indemnity or responsibility apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether active or passive in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished to client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profits, business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an action to modify under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretations of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any microbiological analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or as otherwise quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law, or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client, authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to resell, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other recognition to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours. Before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.
The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes (i) an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the Terms and conditions and (ii) an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. All reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other items claiming.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including but not limited to attorneys' fees (the Litigation Expenses), and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring or arising out of or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1) injury, disease or death of persons 2) loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3) financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples material(s) for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (each as now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analyses completed is required for all new clients or within terms of payment and/or credit as may have been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all be applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and/or client's authorized representative. Excess that subsequent or fees for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not intended, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less' samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. Any modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel perform the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial orders and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public, or to the public domain, or client has failed to pay PCL for services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement, subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unsolicited disclosure of such data where such disclosure is required. PCL reports are confidential documents prepared for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees that it shall not, nor shall its employees or agents, deliver such reports, data or information to any third party (except to client's agents and representatives solely in furtherance of client's business) without client's prior written consent.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and expert witness fees in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, i.e. injury, illness, death of persons, cost of damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and/or 3. fines, or penalties of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply when claims, damages, actions of every kind and nature, including, but not limited to, such claims, damages, actions, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses arising out of or caused by the negligence, strict liability or other fault of any Indemnified Person, whether active or as alleged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent not expressly prohibited by applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) or lost expenses in other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any of bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or as otherwise quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when sample(s) completed is required for all new clients until such a history of payment and/or credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If client or client's are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable associated attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is ordering services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (pictured is 8 hours) must be delivered at the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the Client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or solicitation of consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract resulting upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client's purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and information materials provided by client to PCL pursuant to this agreement and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and not to any other third party or to third party beneficiary (ies) of the contents, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary or confidential technical information, software or know-how of PCL.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to attorneys' fees, litigation expenses and costs) arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or subsequent handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of personnel, loss of, damage to, loss of use of property and/or 3. environmental damage of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnification specifically applies to losses, claims, liabilities, etc. of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to Client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental, or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption), litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (as often now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacteriological analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample collected, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect for the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET [insert number here] days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or specific fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for Client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client, in using services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent, broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not intended, or shall be used to rely upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or instrument.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 4pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less' samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (2-7 days), samples must arrive at the laboratory 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (sometimes 8 hour) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or restated from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modification to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express intent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care as it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information. Upon client's written request, PCL will provide client with copies of PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of PCL's reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any report, plan, work, technical information, software or analytical other item PCL has provided.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement without limitation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, buried, or lost use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries contributed solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, costs, damages, and/or of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which one client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption), Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is requested is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those client's with an established credit account, our terms for payment of invoices are NET EIGHTEEN (18) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees of agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by one or authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the servicing, entitlement, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Incidentals 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it takes in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any interpretation concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (the aforementioned expenses) and costs arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. lost of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, cover, defend against, actions of every kind and character, arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and/or confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or upon completion is required for all new clients. Upon a history of payment and/or credit approval has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or as may be applicable, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees (if any) fees associated with such collection procedures or actions.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person in writing. It is hereby and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.
The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (LAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the reports obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is for public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data whenever a standard was observed. PCL reports are confidential and are provided therein are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that in no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information or use technical information, software proprietary or other knowledge.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated damages including, but not limited to all court fees (including expenses) and penalty arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Economic loss of any kind whatsoever. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, in no event shall specifically apply to claims, claims, damages, penalties of every kind and nature, including and after in connection with the negligence, alleged, caused or attributed to any Responsible Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profits or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of stored samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample collected, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or as otherwise quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or upon delivery is requested if no credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as will by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days shall bear interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or by writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent, broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information, and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institutions or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (sodium is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or her heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (or delivery thereof) only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes a bona fide acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and client agrees to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No oral or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's discussion shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are substantially conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of this agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data when a such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees these shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not publish any third party information concerning technical information, software, processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies, now and as may any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and proceedings regarding, but not limited to all costs, fees and expenses incurred by, and/or awarded as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. To apply, this act or default of pursuant of "Act of" damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property owned by Client, or loss of injury to) of any kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, claims damages, or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, the indemnity and agreement to defend shall apply whether or not such claims, demands, causes of action, suits, proceedings or liabilities are groundless, false or fraudulent and regardless of whether such are caused by any indemnified Person, whether active or engaged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be provided by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law, and in every event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses in other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by Client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or on services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is issuing services and/or reports for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples in such containers as are asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other substances or trace material, wastes and substances which are in fact, or recognized to constitute a risk to the environment, state or local laws. PCL policies or regulations (with the interpretation of the EPA or any local or governmental or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any part of the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of unexposed portions of samples as directed by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current service and price schedule. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis become property of PCL and may be disposed of by PCL after a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with PCL's QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of application for the same the services were rendered or such other quoted and agreed upon price in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance of services may be required or requested for all new clients. Terms of payment and all invoices are due upon receipt unless otherwise specified by PCL. For those clients with an established credit line, the terms for payment of invoices are NET 30 days unless otherwise specified by PCL. Invoices not paid within thirty (30) days from date of invoice, or other credit terms as may be established by PCL, shall be subject to interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month (or the highest amount permitted by law, if lesser) on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are referred to collection or legal action for enforcement of payment, Client shall pay reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of collection. Client shall pay all taxes, duties and assessments of any nature now or hereafter imposed on or with respect to the services.

13. Agreement Modification

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Terms shall be effective upon writing and executed by authorized officers and any changes and modifications must be in writing. Either party may request changes in the Terms, but no changes shall be binding upon PCL unless accepted by it in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for Client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished to PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker for any other representative capacity for any corporation or entity, it is agreed and understood that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement and that no third party may rely upon data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or syndication of any securities, any portion of same supporting the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the participation in or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (extraction is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late deliveries, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All PCL representatives have been trained on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up to include unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be processed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his/her or their successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or supplemented from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services performed hereunder only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or instructing consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No ordinary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the sample(s) or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials presented by client or its client's consultant and the reports delivered by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client is filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement, subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided shall be solely for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall be the third party beneficiary of such reports. Save as set forth herein, Client will not disclose to any third party, per publication concerning technical information, without prior written permission from PCL.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against all suits and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys fees and litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or representations regarding the disposal of items / hazardous materials, 1. injury, illness or death of persons; 2. loss of, damage to, use of, trespass of use of property; and/or 3. pollution, any of which may occur at any time. This indemnity shall apply to any of the foregoing which results, causes, or is claimed to result solely or in part by negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, without limitation, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of an independent contractor, any independent person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have arising and the other indemnities herein. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and the cost of joint judgment reversal, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or the services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes or substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (together with existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretations of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis for total oil analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations or the date the services were rendered or as otherwise quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance of sample analysis or completion is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law, PCL may apply a service charge on any amount unpaid by the end of thirty (30) days, accrued interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to this terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to rely upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. 11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the expiration of thirty (30) days in arrears shall bear interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, or notifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by the or authorized representative. Verbal instructions subsequent orders for additional services may be carried out by PCL.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or results furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (analysis is 48 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Prearranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of Sale, including the price schedule, and any addenda or agreements hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, submitting or sampling services and his or her heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which governs and supersedes the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes (i) an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and (2) an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the Terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official AnalyCcal Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or from process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be liable for unauthorized disclosure of data unless such standard was observed. PCL reports and information or exhibits thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and no copies thereof shall be furnished to any person(s) or use of reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or use of real property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and shall be arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnity will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre and post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified persons) in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of application or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or email analysis is required for all new clients or where a history of payment and/or credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid on the said 30 thirty (30) day is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client or payer will pay any and all attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client, authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is providing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (2-7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (such as 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for lengthy periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.
The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this Agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or lawful process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of samples, which shall be disposed as per PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall not to any third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not rely on PCL any other party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other knowledge.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and keep PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all actions, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and reasonable expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (but litigation Expenses) and awards arising out of claims by any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, personal death of persons, 2. loss of, damage to, or use or loss of use of property, and/or 3. losses of moral, money and of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. For purposes of this indemnity shall specifically apply to, cover, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any "Indemnified Person," whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client may otherwise owe PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and for pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or as otherwise quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or any alternative as negotiated is required for all new clients or clients without a history of payment and/or clients account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1 ½%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client will pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees of against fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective unless agreed to in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports distributed by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party is privy to such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times ≤ 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (listed in 6 hours) must be delivered the same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.
The client may order Services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and test sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results released by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care as it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall limit the responsible personnel's disclosure of such data where such confidentiality is observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and client's agent. There shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Clients will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (and Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, related in any way to or arising incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent best allowed under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceeding or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of PCL reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other proprietary.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, parent, affiliates, subsidiaries and agents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (the "Liabilities"), and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities proximately to the extent negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any independent person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent universally under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by Client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses in either fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interests, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified persons in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portion of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at anytime without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients until a history of payment and credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to such collection proceedings.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall not be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it will not hold party benefitary of our reports, data or information. Client without disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third parties as a result of, relating in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. (2a) of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind and character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities arising solely by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or in breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, or the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Material. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analyses, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days of invoice to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amount is to be collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client or all pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on said data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteriology 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or his heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (TLAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Majeure

be responsible for delay or failure to perform
ant to this agreement due to causes

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL must use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all Liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET (30) within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law of one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or "agency" fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the solicitation to so contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be processed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.
The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), EA Waterboard (EAAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. 7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was complied. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses in damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) or other examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure ordered by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information unless such disclosure was approved. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or sample collection, handling or disposal of Client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, or use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Material. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or credit analysis is completed is required for all new clients or build a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or as applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing Services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to record value in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Lactose is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments thereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process, PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and PCL shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software processes or other proprietary.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the obligation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or client's failure, training or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons, 2. loss of damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence at or breach of conduct by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or the services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any fecal bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations in the state the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required, but all new clients or with a history of payment and/or credit are subject to, shall be established with PCL. For those clients with pre-established credit, except the terms for payment of invoices are NET (AGREEMENT) thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law, at one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees for all/any fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his, their account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, Bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance to when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all Services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or by a process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data if the said standard was followed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and/or agent. There shall be no third party beneficiaries of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents, harmless from and against any and all claims, losses or damages, liens, demands, causes of action, costs and calculated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or to any extent partly resulting, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, bodily harm or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Release or risk of injury of any character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to lessee, clients, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the Client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients of until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all amounts unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days or subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or event fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on said data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample material's provided by client or at the client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to attorneys fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of that sort. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or its breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all by applicable law), any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at Client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other intellectual.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (for litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or client a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and/or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care and uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenils, benzene or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted of at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective on in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before application to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereon) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the Client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Wallenboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to taxes, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees for agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteriology is 8hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Client of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of information where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software processes or other intellectual.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all claims, losses in damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and fees (including reporting, but not limited to all court fees, attorney's fees, litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, the indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law, to the extent shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or on services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All Short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (process in 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be processed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract ensuing upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has fail to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law in legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software or proprietary rights of other technologies.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (the Litigation Expenses)) and expert) arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, sickness or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, or liability of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have on PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of quotation on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from dated invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all sums not so timely paid, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative. Except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data, absent such standard. Unless approved PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and any claims expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, jury litigation expenses, and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or pertaining to handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, use of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees. Further, the indemnitor shall specifically agree to defend, indemnify and save harmless of every kind and character for arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by the indemnified Parties, whether actual or alleged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client or indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses in other laws including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at Client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time with out notice. Payment in advance or where credit is not granted is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit is established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET 30 calendar days (30 days from date of invoice). To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law of one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client agrees to pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees regardless of any final judgment collection procedure or effort.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative. Except for subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for client's account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, nor will be used to relieve reliance in connection with or to induce the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other dividend to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior modification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 10 days or less samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at Client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of client data unless such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of its reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses (including, but not limited to, all court fees, attorneys' fees and costs) asserted against or arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property; and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacteriological analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or effort.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client, in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the qualification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No retainer or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "Services" shall mean all work to be performed for the Client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data when such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any reports prepared using technical information, software, programs or other information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and costs (and expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees and litigation expenses) and expert witness fees of Client or any third party, as a result of, related in any way or arising incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement (except liabilities resulting or because of client's hazardous materials, injury, disease, illness of persons, loss of, damage to, injury to, or destruction of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of that kind). This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, costs, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation, business or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL guidelines or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for microbiological analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients until a history of payment and credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by all applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1 ½) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or costs of such action with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to record upon, in connection with or as part of, the publication, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities at any period, or other recording on the holders of any securities, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the solicitation to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are revised to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the involved amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall not, no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to, attorneys fees (like litigation expenses) and penalty arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, and/or use of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity shall apply to all of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries even though the acts, negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity is all inclusive, applies to any claims, damages, amounts of every kind and character arising out of in connection with the negligence or in favor of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by adequate liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre and post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is payable by interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition thereto associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any person, or other recipient as the holder of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and may or may not own, supervise, assign and remediate sites. "Price Schedule" means Pat Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or replaced from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing, which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use accepted methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or its client's recipient and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or it the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or governmental body and/or the valid mandate of a court of competent jurisdiction. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for loss of privacy, misappropriation, or loss of data where such standard was adhered to. PCL reserves the right to publish the results of the work for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall not hold PCL liable for any reports, data or information client releases to it or any third party and indemnifies PCL against any technical information, advice, price, error or other transaction.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses (including, but not limited to attorneys' fees, Litigation Expenses and penalties) arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, relating in any way to any negligent or willful act or omission in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Apply, however, in the case of gross negligence, willful misconduct, or death or personal injury caused by PCL's negligence. PCL shall not be liable for any consequential damages, including, but not limited to, loss of use of property or loss of profits or loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liability caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to claims, claims by an agent, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Parties, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Parties. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs claimed by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement except client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by a client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of acceptance or on the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients. Once a history of payment and/or credit has been established with PCL, for those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are net (30) days within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by or allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid within and 45 thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are consigned through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by a duly authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or for, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used or relied upon in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded on some of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was used. Data and PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall be its third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (like Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to taxes, client damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administration interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at anytime without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and /or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for Client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any [illegible] representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of [illegible] securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, ≤ 7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. CASE NARRATIVE

S1: The surrogate recovery was below the lower acceptance limit. The surrogate recoveries for the quality control samples were within acceptance limits. This indicates the low recovery may be due to matrix effects from the sample.

Diquat strongly adsorbs to soil particles that are suspended in water. The strong chemical bonds make the herbicide chemically inactive. When bound with soil particles, the extraction procedure for method EPA 549.2 is ineffective at isolating the bound diquat. Any reported diquat represents the dissolved analyte in the water that has not been bound to the soil particles.

Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 7 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(2 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(2 pages)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(3 pages)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
18J0463-01	10/17/2018	10/19/2018	SP 1813991-001	W

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived on ice. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

Inorganic - Metals QC

200.8	11/03/2018:216194 All analysis quality controls are within established criteria.
	11/03/2018:213123 All preparation quality controls are within established criteria, except: The following note applies to Uranium: 435 Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

ND=Non-Detected. PQL=Practical Quantitation Limit. * PQL adjusted for dilution.

MDA = Minimum Detectable Activity (Calculated at the 95% confidence level) = Data utilized by DHS to determine matrix interference.
MCL / AL = Maximum Contamination Level / Action Level. Alpha's Action Level of 5 pCi/L is based on the Assigned Value (AV).
AV = Assigned Value(Gross Alpha Result + (0.84 x Error)). CCR Section 64442: Drinking Water Compliance Note: Do the following
If Gross Alpha's (AV) exceeds 5 pCi/L run Uranium. If Gross Alpha's (AV) minus Uranium exceeds 5 pCi/L run Radium 226.

Drinking Water Compliance:
Gross Alpha (AV) minus Uranium is less than or equal to 15 pCi/L
Uranium is less than or equal to 20 pCi/L
Radium 226 + Radium 228 is less than or equal to 5 pCi/L

Note: Samples are held for 3-6 months prior to disposal.

Definition

CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyted. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
Dup	: Duplicate Sample - A random sample with each batch is prepared and analyzed in duplicate. The relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.

Explanation

435	: Sample matrix may be affecting this analyte. Data was accepted based on the LCS or CCV recovery.

The following report contains the results for the one aqueous sample received on October 22, 2017. This sample was analyzed for 2,3,7,8-TCDD by EPA 1613B. Routine turn-around time was provided for this work.

This work was authorized under Pat-Chem Laboratories' Project # 18J0463.

The report consists of a Cover Letter, Sample Inventory (Section I), Data Summary (Section II), Sample Tracking (Section VI), and Qualifiers/Abbreviations (Section VII). Raw Data (Section III), Continuing Calibration (Section IV), and Initial Calibration (Section V) are available in a full report (.pdf format) upon request.

If you have any questions regarding this report, please feel free to contact me at (916)932-5011.

Sincerely,

James M. Hedin

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent that Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disposition required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and no other agency there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose any third party information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client hereby and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and reasonable expenses (including, but not limited to, attorney fees, investigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client, or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, illness or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial losses of every kind of character. This indemnity does not extend to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, Client damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees (including without limitation attorney's fees, court costs, awards or jury or jury judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as hazardous federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of specimens on the date the services were rendered or with prices quotes and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment must be made in full when invoices is completed received or for all new clients or with a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law or by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney the client to all pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in courts' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports obtained by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party interests on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. Afterhours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additional amendments which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes (i) an acceptance by the client of PCL offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and (ii) an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was followed. PCL reports and data relative to sample analyses are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall be a third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary operating technical information, software or product or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, between damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and any related expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation, fines and any and all awards arising in favor of Client, or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way arising incidental to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or sample collection, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous substances, if legally, due to any of client's or client's agents, employees, or of PCL or its employees. Further, client indemnifies shall specifically apply to claims, damages, actions or expenses and costs arising out of or in connection with the unintentional, whether active, or negligence in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, expert fees, and/or jury or jury judgment research), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state of local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who has requested laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be advanced or revised from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services as defined herein only under the following Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order and PCL's acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and the agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No conflicting or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

10. Hold Harmless

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples, materials for analysis such as subsoil or groundwater, chemicals, biological substances or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes, and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof) (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous materials received by PCL from Client or at Client's property shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of as unused portions of samples as specified by Client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the Client does not specify its preferred means of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current available disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis of bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment of retainer or down payment is required for all new clients and a credit history of payment and terms has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established account, the terms for payment of invoices are net 30 calendar days (30) days from date of invoice. Failure to pay within specified time of all or any applicable fee, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of 1.5% per month or the maximum rate permitted by law. In case suit shall be brought for collection of the unpaid balance, or if collection is referred to an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or equitable fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative. Verbal or subsequent orders for additional services may be verified in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that the parties hereto (the party to this agreement, and their respective third party beneficiaries) may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that such data, information and reports are not requested or shall be used to mislead upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or continuation of any securities, any periodic or other recurring to the holders of any security, the securing, advancement, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender of the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times (< 7 days), samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (such as 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been outlined on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be processed as additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or re-issued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No counter or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including production of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodology or which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of this agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for any inadvertent disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all actions, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way arising, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to the agreement and/or compensation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, E. coli, Enterococci, Fecals, Coliforms, Total, or damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, personal injury, illness or death of any person, including but not limited to any employee, agent or servant of client or any of its affiliates, in connection with the negligence or willful misconduct of client, its employees, agents or servants, or any of their respective affiliates, whether active or passive, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnity would be in addition to any liability which client may otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnification obligation will be supported by client's liability insurance coverage in the form and amounts required by law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses incurred by the successful party in any claim, suit, action, litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement by the successful party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples material for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, blatter or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of acceptance on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when services is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit approval has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms are net (date of change on the face of the invoice) 30 days from date of invoice. No late fees when payment is received in full by the 30th day of the month in the invoice billing. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity, for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports prepared or furnished by PCL shall be used by client solely for client's own benefit and that no such data, information or report prepared or furnished by PCL shall be used, in whole or in part, for the purpose of inducing the sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other securities to the holders of any security, the securing, arrangement, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the participation in or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. 9. Confidentiality

Data and the samples or materials provided by client or its agent supplied and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data when such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other proprietary.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees (the "Litigation Expenses"), and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement, except to the extent caused by willful misconduct of PCL, its employees. Without limitation, and specifically without waiver, client does hereby release, hold harmless and indemnify PCL from any and all claims of every kind and character, arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities are in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise incur to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under such circumstances, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples of materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic materials, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by Client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for analysis for local or state clients will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and price lists.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of execution or the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or pts a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law all by acceptable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client or its duly representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports prepared by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested or will be used to gain upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the qualification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. No analytes with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereon) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. Any contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unwilling/accidental disclosure of said data where such standard was utilized. PCL reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling, or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, and liabilities of every kind and character arising out of and in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profits or business interruption Litigation Expenses in other laws including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when otherwise is required for all new clients in until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or by writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. Client agrees and acknowledges that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by lawful legal process. PCL uses the same standard of care as it does in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any interpretation made of technical information, including prepared or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and reasonable attorney or expert fees or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with, the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, lost of, or loss of use of property, and or 3. business loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing where costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the active negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, the indemnity shall specifically apply to all losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and for pre or post judgment interests, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls (known) or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of stored samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and credit worthiness has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law as well by accepted law, any amount unpaid as thereof 30 days after it is billed is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in events from associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative. Verbal or telephoned orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is serving services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal time will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been noted on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the Client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and/or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to this contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or to the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered). It is otherwise in breach of the agreement), subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Clients will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, price lists or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and awards, arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, or loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind, of that kind. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall not specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis. Client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by or allowed by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative; except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's requests and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it will not hold any third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary or confidential technical information, software programs or other information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and reasonable expenses including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (by litigation, arbitration and appeal), arising in favor of client or any third party, as a result of, or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, contact of use of property and/or 3. failure or loss of reputation or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, inter alia, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the minimum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified at such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit is established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET (date within thirty (30) days from date of invoice). To the fullest extent permitted by law, any amount unpaid by the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to any fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client or authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acting, services rendered for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, assessment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided therein are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of PCL's reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software, programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the obligation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption), Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive sample materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contacting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or in the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and for no others there shall be no third party beneficiaries of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other know-how.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and will save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, litigation expenses and experts' fees, arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, or in any way relating, directly or indirectly, to all or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or implementation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity shall not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or liabilities caused solely by the willful misconduct or gross negligence of PCL, or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to lawsuit claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of and in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) of whatever kind or character, however arising, whether foreseeable, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided unless this agreement expressly states to the contrary.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or under a history of delinquent and/or credit accounts that have been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of any and are NOT LESS (within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the losing shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use, reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent (client), or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to record upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or syndication of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the issuing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays of similar nature are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is provided, directly or indirectly, to client by PCL) for all services rendered or to be rendered in breach of the agreement (subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process). PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information. Upon client's request, PCL reports and other material provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that there shall be no third party beneficiaries of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical data, know-how, software programs or other proprietary

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases, to the full scope, indemnifies, defends and holds PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all claims, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated liabilities including, but not limited to, all court fees (like Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to or arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this Agreement and, or interpretation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, or use of, or loss of use of property and 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, claims, damages or expenses caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to cover claims based on actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be to the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation, against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or any services provided under this agreement, even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of execution of the order the services were rendered or such other price quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is net within 30 days unless otherwise stipulated in writing or for all new clients requiring a minimum of $1,000 credit account has been established with PCL. For invoice clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law and by Applicable Law, any invoiced amount not paid on time shall be subject to interest at the rate of the maximum rate permitted by law, or 1.5% and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balance. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees for same. Non-acceptable work, such rules/regulations or criteria

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries; No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for Client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports delivered by PCL. Client is retaining services PCL is hired for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or continuation of any securities, any person, or other recipient of the services, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the classification or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analytes with holding times of 24 hours or less, samples must arrive within 20 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-3 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (excepting 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

Rev 2 Effective 5/1/17

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.
The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.
For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement, subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and PCL agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analysis such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, barrels or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment is due upon when invoice is completed or is mailed for all new clients or upon a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or as will be applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees to agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by the an authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or by telefax.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and report(s) are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Bacteria) a 6 hour 0 must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL)'s standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized movement of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software or quality assurance information.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent, harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expense) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. Injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. Financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other Indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profits or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest, or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for aerobic bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by or all by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection proceedings or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 8 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company, delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring, incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, cost of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any Indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and expenses (including, but not limited to, all court fees, plus litigation expenses) and awards arising in favor of client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. the actual loss of money, or of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL, its employees. Further, this indemnity does specifically apply to losses, claims, damages, actions or events that are the result arising out of or in connection with the negligence (but not to gross negligence or willful misconduct) of PCL, its employees, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified entities. It is the extent necessary under applicable law. Client agrees that its indemnity obligations will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, cost (or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, barrels or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis. Client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or as otherwise quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance of work, analysis or completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate (if any) permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are referred through legal clearinghouse or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in regard to fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if made in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client (authorized representative), except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client, securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 5pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 7-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its duly authorized agents and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The Client may order services by submitting a written Chain of Custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or industrial consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The Parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any exposure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where non-standard mail services or PCL reports and information provided therein are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports and/or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information pertaining to any technical information, software, procedure or other knowledge.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, liability, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses, including, but not limited to attorneys' fees (including expenses) and costs of whatever kind or nature (collectively, "Claims") arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way relating to, and/or arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and/or 3. financial loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, inter alia, claimed damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence or omission of contractor or its indemnified Person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be identified by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any Hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with terms such other later conditions in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or on an invoice is contingent upon, but not limited to, client's credit history of payment and/or credit account that is either established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET 30/EOM within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all fees, obligations due, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the Terms shall be effective on in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for another person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used or relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advance. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.

The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and our proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL's reports and information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and investigative expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees (the "Indemnified Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. Economic loss of every kind or character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or liabilities arising solely out of the client's negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to certain claims, damages, attorneys' fees and other costs arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, Client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption). Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and/or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any securities, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 2pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria tests hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the prices hereto, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or restated from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined hereon) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or composition of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client an[illegible] hereunder subject [illegible] out-of-pocket [illegible] allon in [illegible] le

[illegible] nformance for [illegible] daily [illegible] ng and [illegible] ion

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered, or is otherwise in breach of the agreement (or subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL will use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of such data where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiaries of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software processes or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and consultant expenses, including, but not limited to all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of toxic/hazardous materials 2. Injury, disease or death of persons 3. Loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 4. Industrial lawsuit of every kind and character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to, cover, compensate, defend, pay and reimburse for, arising out of or in connection with the negligence or breach of contract by client, indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses or other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and (to pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all utilized portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable pricing schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or such prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when proposal is completed is required for all new clients or until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET Eight within thirty (30) days from date of invoice. To the fullest extent permitted or at will by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client will pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees in addition to fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client in securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity, it is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on work data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (Ice/cool) (< 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who/which request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosures required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of confidential information unless such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of Client and Client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted or at all by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agent fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only if in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. Client is acquiring services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to ensure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling might be assessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and condition and 2. an agreement to be bound to these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC) Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has filed to pay PCL for all services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where said standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided hereto are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any information concerning technical information, software or proprietary other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials. 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of that actor. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and charges arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have in PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages (including without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption) Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and /or pre or post-judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect in the area of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance for work services is required (TBD as per clients) until a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established client account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted by law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid accounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedures or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by clients authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and may include such client's agents and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or reissued from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing all services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall govern all of PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes (i) an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and (2) an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of sampling services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), Co-Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client, arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except in the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCE shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public or is the public domain or client has fail to pay PCL for services rendered or is otherwise in breach of the agreement subject to any disputes resolved by any or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care in safeguarding its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of said data where such standard was observed. PCL reports are information provided thereon are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees that it will not hold third party beneficiary of our reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any interpretation, strong technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its subsidiaries, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, employees and each of them, from and against any and all liabilities, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, suits and associated expenses, including, but not limited to, all court fees, (the Litigation Expenses) and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party, as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials, injury, disease, illness of persons or loss of, damage to, loss of, or loss of use of property, such as a financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity shall not serve to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to losses, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified person, whether actual or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available liability insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption. Litigation Expenses in other fees including, without limitation, attorney's fees, expert fees, and pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or all services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples materials for analyses such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls barrels or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (whether now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated) or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof (the "Hazardous Materials"). In addition, all samples received by PCL for any/all bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of operations on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients, or until a history of payment and/or credit approval has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid at the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agency fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information or reports furnished by PCL. Client is securing services hereunder for its own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions of sale, including the price schedule, and any additions or amendments hereto which are agreed to in writing. "Client" means the individual or entity who may request laboratory services, consulting or sampling services and his or its heirs, successors, assigns and representatives. "Price Schedule" means Pat-Chem Laboratories (PCL) standard price schedule as such document may be amended or released from time to time by PCL.

2. Independent Contractor

PCL acts solely as an independent contractor in performing its services.

3. Orders and Acceptance

PCL offers and will accept orders for services (as defined herein) only under the following General Terms and Conditions (the "Terms"). These Terms shall not apply if PCL and the Client shall have executed a separate agreement in writing which does not incorporate the Terms. No modifications to the Terms shall be valid and binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the client and PCL.

The client may order services by submitting a written chain of custody (COC) to PCL. Any such order constitutes 1. an acceptance by the client of PCL's offer to do business with the client under the terms and conditions and 2. an agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. The Client's delivery of samples to PCL or initiation of consulting services constitutes the client's express assent to be governed by these terms and conditions. No contrary or additional terms and conditions expressed in a client's document shall be deemed to become a part of the contract created upon acceptance of the terms and conditions.

For purpose of this agreement, "services" shall mean all work to be performed for the client, including provision of all equipment and materials to be furnished by PCL.

4. Limit of Liability

PCL will perform the services in accordance with the normal standards of workmanship in the profession. Where applicable, PCL will use analytical methodologies which are in substantial conformity with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), CA Waterboard (ELAP), American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), Association of Official Analytical Chemists (AOAC), Standard Methods (SM) of the Examination of Water and Wastewater and/or other recognized methodologies. PCL reserves the right to deviate from these methodologies if necessary or appropriate due to the nature or compositions of the samples or otherwise based on the reasonable judgement of PCL. Deviations, if any, will be made on a basis consistent with the recognized standards of the industry and/or PCL Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and/or our QA/QC policies. The total liability of PCL, its officers, agents, employees or successors to the client arising out of or in connection with the services to be provided herein, shall not exceed the invoiced amount for said services. Client's acceptance of a work order and /or proposal releases PCL from any liability in excess of the invoiced amount for the services notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any client purchase orders or contracts.

5. Clients Responsibility

Unless PCL personnel performs the sampling, the client shall be responsible for the condition which the samples are collected and for conditions in and about the sampling site and for advising PCL of the same and all information required to enable PCL to perform its services safely and efficiently.

6. Cancellation

Client may cancel any order for services hereunder subject to payment for all services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation in accordance with the applicable Price Schedule.

7. Overriding Agreement

The parties agree that the Terms shall govern performance of Client's initial order and all subsequent orders for additional services, whether placed in writing or verbally, except to the extent the Terms are modified in writing and executed by an authorized representative of both parties.

8. Force Majeure

PCL shall not be responsible for delay or failure to perform the services pursuant to this agreement due to causes beyond its control.

9. Confidentiality

Data and the sample materials provided by client or at client's request and the results obtained by PCL shall be held in confidence (unless such information is generally available to the public, or in the public domain or client has failed to pay PCL for all services rendered) or is otherwise in breach of the agreement) subject to any disclosure required by law or legal process. PCL shall use the same standard of care it uses in protecting its own confidential data and shall not be responsible for unauthorized disclosure of data items where such standard was observed. PCL reports and information provided thereunder are for the exclusive use and benefit of client and client agrees there shall be no third party beneficiary of such reports, data or information. Client will not disclose to any third party any proprietary or trade technical information, software programs or other formulations.

10. Hold Harmless

Client releases and shall save, indemnify, defend and hold PCL, its employees, officers, directors, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent Harmless from and against any and all claims, losses or damages, claims, demands, causes of action, costs and associated expenses including, but not limited to, all court fees (the "Litigation Expenses") and awards arising in favor of Client or any third party as a result of, and/or in any way occurring incident to arising out of, or in connection with the performance of services by PCL pursuant to this agreement and/or transportation, handling or disposal of client's hazardous materials: 1. injury, disease or death of persons 2. loss of, damage to, loss of use of property and or 3. financial loss of every kind of character. This indemnity does not apply to any of the foregoing losses, costs, damages, or injuries caused solely by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of PCL or its employees. Further, this indemnity shall specifically apply to taxes, claims damages, actions of every kind and character arising out of or in connection with the negligence of or breach of contract by any indemnified Person, whether active or alleged, in the performance of services under this agreement. The foregoing indemnities will be in addition to any liability which the client might otherwise have to PCL and the other indemnified Persons. To the extent necessary under applicable law, client agrees that its indemnity obligation will be supported by available Pollutis insurance coverage to be furnished by client, which insurance shall be in the maximum amounts permitted under applicable law. In no event shall PCL be liable to client for indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages including, without limitation, loss of profit or business interruption, Litigation Expenses or other fees (including, without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, and cost pre or post judgment interest), or any other expenses or costs incurred by client or any other party in any litigation against or involving PCL or any indemnified person in connection with this agreement or an services provided under this agreement even if client is the prevailing party.

11. Hazardous Substances

For PCL to perform the services requested by client, client will provide and PCL will receive samples or materials for analytes such as asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, bacteria or any other hazardous or toxic material, wastes and substances which are defined, determined or identified as such under federal, state or local laws, rules, PCL policies or regulations (weather now existing or hereafter enacted or promulgated or any judicial or administrative interpretation of any thereof the "Hazardous Materials"). Client understands and agrees that any hazardous material received by PCL from client or at client's request shall remain the property of Client and that upon completion of PCL's services, PCL will dispose of all unused portions of samples as specified by client or by PCL's QA/QC policies. In the event the client does not specify its preferred method of disposal, PCL will return to the client all unused samples which contain Hazardous Materials. PCL reserves the right to charge the client for the disposal of unused samples in accordance with PCL's current sample disposal policy. In addition, all samples received by PCL for any lab bacterial analysis, client will be charged a sample disposal fee, per sample submitted, in accordance with our QA/QC policies and procedures.

12. Prices/Payments

Client shall pay PCL in accordance with PCL's applicable price schedule in effect at the time of specimens on the date the services were rendered or with prices quoted and later confirmed in writing. The price schedule is subject to change at any time without notice. Payment in advance or when analysis is completed is required for all new clients or for a history of payment and/or credit account has been established with PCL. For those clients with an established credit account, the terms for payment of charges are NET CASH within thirty (30) days from date of invoices. To the fullest extent permitted (if at all) by applicable law, any amount unpaid as the end of thirty (30) days is subject to interest at the lesser of the maximum rate permitted by law or one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on the unpaid balances. If unpaid amounts are collected through legal proceedings or by an attorney, the client shall pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees or agents' fees associated with such collection procedure or efforts.

13. Agreement Modification

Changes, modifications or amendments to the terms shall be effective only in writing and executed by an officer of PCL and by client's authorized representative, except that subsequent orders for additional services may be verbal or in writing.

14. No Third Party Beneficiaries: No Right of Reliance

PCL shall have no responsibility or liability for client's use of or reliance on data, information, or reports furnished by PCL. client is securing services hereunder for his own account, and not as agent or broker, or in any other representative capacity for any other person or entity. It is agreed and acknowledged that there are no third party beneficiaries to this agreement, and that no third party may rely on such data, information or reports. Client represents, warrants, and agrees that said data, information and reports are not requested, or shall be used to relied upon, in connection with or as part of, the purchase, sale, underwriting, or distribution of any securities, any periodic or other reporting to the holders of any security, the securing, amendment, renewal, or extension of any loan from any financial institution or other lender or the certification to or contracting with, directly or indirectly, any governmental agency or department.

15. Rush Analysis

Rush analyses are available for an additional charge and must be arranged in advanced. If, for any unforeseen reason, the rush turnaround time cannot be met, the normal price will apply.

16. Holding Times

PCL cannot be responsible for holding times that are exceeded because of samples that are delivered on weekends or after 3pm on weekdays without prior notification and acceptance. Standard holding times and storage conditions should be reviewed prior to any samples being received by PCL. A list of holding times can be provided to the client if requested. All analyses with holding times of 14 days or less, samples must arrive within 96 hours to allow PCL to meet holding times without applying a rush surcharge. All short holding times, 2-7 days, samples must arrive at the lab within 24 hours before expiration to insure that the holding times can be met. Short Holding Times of 48 hours or less (bacteria is 6 hours) must be delivered that same day in order to guarantee holding times are met. After hours, late delivery, freight company delays or similar issues are subject to additional rush fees and/or the inability to meet holding times. All holding times are in effect as of the publication date of this fee schedule and are subject to change without notice.

17. Sample Retention

All samples are retained for at least thirty (30) days after analysis has been completed. Sample storage for longer periods is by request only. Pre-arranged long term storage is subject to an additional charge. Samples will be discarded at the end of the pre-arranged storage time.

18. Sample Pick Up/Field Tech Sampling

All pick up/sampling fees have been notated on the fee schedule. Reasonable time has been allocated for each pick up or service. Unnecessary delays during the pick up or sampling, might be accessed an additional fee.

Laboratory Report

Introduction: This report package contains total of 3 pages divided into 3 sections:

Case Narrative	(1 pages)	: An overview of the work performed at FGL.
Sample Results	(1 page)	: Results for each sample submitted.
Quality Control	(1 page)	: Supporting Quality Control (QC) results.

Case Narrative

This Case Narrative pertains to the following samples:

Sample Description	Date Sampled	Date Received	FGL Lab ID #	Matrix
18K0170-01	11/07/2018	11/08/2018	SP 1814852-001	W

Sampling and Receipt Information: All samples were received in acceptable condition and within temperature requirements, unless noted on the Condition Upon Receipt (CUR) form. All samples arrived at 4 °C. All samples were prepared and analyzed within the method specified hold time. All samples were checked for pH if acid or base preservation is required (except for VOAs). For details of sample receipt information, please see the attached Chain of Custody and Condition Upon Receipt Form.

Quality Control: All samples were prepared and analyzed according to the following tables:

Inorganic - Wet Chemistry QC

218.6	11/09/2018:216523 All analysis quality controls are within established criteria
	11/09/2018:213400 All preparation quality controls are within established criteria

Certification:: I certify that this data package is in compliance with ELAP standards, both technically and for completeness, except for any conditions listed above. Release of the data contained in this data package is authorized by the Laboratory Director or his designee, as verified by the following electronic signature.

Definition

CCV	: Continuing Calibration Verification - Analyzed to verify the instrument calibration is within criteria.
CCB	: Continuing Calibration Blank - Analyzed to verify the instrument baseline is within criteria.
Blank	: Method Blank - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not contributing contamination to the samples.
LCS	: Laboratory Control Standard/Sample - Prepared to verify that the preparation process is not affecting analyte recovery.
MS	: Matrix Spikes - A random sample is spiked with a known amount of analyte. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSD	: Matrix Spike Duplicate of MS/MSD pair - A random sample duplicate is spiked with a known amount of analyted. The recoveries are an indication of how that sample matrix affects analyte recovery.
MSRPD	: MS/MSD Relative Percent Difference (RPD) - The MS relative percent difference is an indication of precision for the preparation and analysis.
ND	: Non-detect - Result was below the DQO listed for the analyte.
DQO	: Data Quality Objective - This is the criteria against which the quality control data is compared.
